Mission statement

Collective worship plays a central part in the life of St Michael's CE Primary School, Lichfield. As an expression of the Christian ethos and spiritual life of the school/academy it offers the whole school community opportunities to experience/participate in/take responsibility for the living expression of Christian worship, valued and honoured through the school's/academies Anglican Foundation. This is set within the context of the corporate community of our school and its historic partnership with St Michael's on Greenhill, Lichfield. We affirm every individual's unique contribution, regardless of age, gender, ability, background or religion.

Legal requirements:

Trust Deed

Our daily act of collective worship is in accordance with the Trust Deed of the school/academy. This requires worship to be consistent with the faith, principles and practices of the Church of England.

DfES guidance

We also take into account DfES legislation. The following link will take you to the current legislation. <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/collective-worship-in-schools>

1988 Education Act

We also take into account the 1988 Education that states,

‘.....all pupils in attendance at a maintained school shall in each school day take part in an act of collective worship’,

And, that this should be,

‘.....mainly of a broadly Christian character’

Worship and/or Assemblies

Some schools have a celebration assembly in order to celebrate pupil's achievements. Care should be taken that this is still regarded as an act of worship through saying prayer at the end of the celebration to thank God for pupil's achievements and successes. Here at St Michael's Primary School, Lichfield we have a Special Mentions Worship on a Friday afternoon. During this time we celebrate our children's successes during the week and the member of staff leading the worship chooses a person from the news who is their special mention. Opportunity is provided for the children to reflect on the values demonstrated by the 'special person' of the week and why they might be a role model.

(However schools should be mindful that worship does not turn into an assembly. In order for worship to be worship it must include prayer)

Section 48 Statutory Inspection of Anglican & Methodist Schools (SIAMS)

All church schools, whether they are Voluntary Aided (VA), Voluntary Controlled (VC) or Foundation (F) will be inspected on collective worship and the impact this has on the whole school community. Here at St Michael's Primary School, Lichfield this inspection will evaluate the school's/academies collective worship on the following:

- the extent to which learners and adults engage with collective worship, its relevance and the way it makes a difference to the lives of members of the whole school community
- the extent to which collective worship is distinctively Christian, setting out the values of the school in their Christian context
- how well collective worship develops personal spirituality within the school community through a range of experiences, including a focus on prayer
- how well collective worship enables participants to develop an understanding of Jesus Christ and a Christian understanding of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- how effectively the school community is involved in the planning, leadership and evaluation of collective worship

The right of withdrawal – see appendix

We recognise the right of withdrawal from worship for pupils at the request of parents and for staff, but encourage discussion with the relevant individuals to ensure that there is understanding of the aims and objectives of worship, and strategies for minimising the disruption caused by any withdrawals

Other opportunities that worship can offer are:

- celebrate the beliefs and cultures of others particularly those represented in our school
- celebrate of achievements of members of the school community
- reinforce school expectations, good behaviour and school routines
- share local school and community information

Management of worship

Ultimately the responsibility for collective worship lies with the Headteacher and the Chair of Governors. However the role of planning, resourcing, managing and evaluating worship has been delegated to our Worship Lead in partnership with a member of the Ministry Team. In addition all teachers in a church school are 'spiritual leaders' and have a responsibility to help pupils develop spiritual awareness. In practice:

- Our SWEC (School Worship and Ethos Committee), comprising Rector, Head, Worship and RE Leads and Foundation Governors oversees the provision, monitoring and evaluation of worship
- A member of the Ministry Team and Headteacher meet prior to the school year to plan core worship events (e.g. communion services, Harvest, Christmas, Easter etc) so that they are prioritised in the school diary
- A member of the Ministry Team co-ordinates the termly Worship Plan, including the rota for Ministry Team led collective worship, communion services, and key events in the Christian life of our school.

- Our Worship Lead facilitates the weekly planning session with class Worship Leaders to enable them to prepare their class led worship
- Our Worship Lead oversees the monitoring and evaluation of worship and reports back to SWEC (School Worship and Ethos Committee)

Resourcing worship

Worship should be adequately resourced to ensure that it is regarded as an important part of school life. Pupils are encouraged and provided opportunities to plan acts of worship (whole school, year group, key stage or class / form), so that they have ownership of it. At St Michael's this takes the form of:

- Each class leading a worship to celebrate their learning once a year for their key stage and parents
- Worship Leaders from each class in Key Stage 2 planning and leading a weekly class act of worship
- Year 6 worship leaders choosing the music for whole school worship and Prayer and Praise

Monitoring, evaluating & action planning worship

Worship is monitored and evaluated frequently in order to ensure that it meets the needs of all who take part. All stakeholders opinions are sought (this should include pupils, teachers, governors & parents – need to add in what we're doing) A yearly action plan which feeds into the school development plan is written and revised to ensure that worship remains relevant and up to date.

Management of the Worship Lead

This is done by the Headteacher and designated Performance Management Reviewer (currently Deputy Head) in conjunction with the Governing Body. This is carried out through the annual performance management cycle for all teachers and also through the Worship Lead's participation in SWEC (School Worship and Ethos Committee) meetings which the Rector (Associate Governor) attends.

Worship themes and current practice

The worship themes for each week are based around our 2 year worship cycle which links to our PSHE curriculum and our six core values. A number of resources are available for staff and these are housed on the book case in the staffroom.

Guidance for schools and academies on the right to withdrawal from Religious Education and Collective Worship March 2017

Collective Worship

The 1944 Education Act gave the right to withdraw from RE or collective worship to parents who wished their children to receive different form of RE or worship. This right is also confirmed in section 71 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998. In the case of collective worship, the government guidance document is Circular 1/94: Religious Education and Collective Worship.

Collective worship in all Church of England schools and academies should honour the school's trust deed and Christian foundations. Worship is central to school life, offering an opportunity for the whole school community to explore the distinctive beliefs and narrative that underpins the school's Anglican foundations and distinctive Christian character. Worship is the responsibility of the governing body in conjunction with the headteacher, working in partnership with the staff and the local parish church.

Our Church of England schools should strive to ensure they are consistently excellent, distinctive, and inclusive, and that the whole curriculum is underpinned by Christian values. Religious Education is an important part of the curriculum in all Church of England schools and academies. Its nature, objectives, and content should be shared with parents each term to ensure that parents are able to recognise that RE is of educational value to all pupils, whatever their belief background. In the same way, collective worship should lie at the heart of school life, proclaiming its distinctive character and faith in a way that is relevant, inclusive and that leads each pupil a little further in their spiritual journey. In this way, the likelihood for parental requests for withdrawal should be reduced. However, when they are made they must be handled accordingly to the legal guidance, while there is scope for a little realism and adaptability in order to ensure the best for every pupil.

In many of our schools within the Diocese of Lichfield, there is a large percentage of children whose families are members of another faith. It is the purpose and duty of every church school to be distinctive as a Church of England school. In each school, it is part of the mission of the church to welcome those of other faiths and no faith. In most cases, parents will have chosen the school for their child, making a specific choice of the school because of the ethos and education it offers. In a small number of cases, parents of other faiths will have been offered a place at a church school because no other school has a place for their child within a reasonable catchment area.

The right to withdraw from collective worship should be at the instigation of the parents or pupils above the age of 16.

The right of withdrawal from collective worship

The right of withdrawal from collective worship would normally be exercised through the physical withdrawal of the pupil from the place where the act of worship is taking place. Indeed the school could insist that this is the way the right is to be implemented. If, however, both the parent and the school agree that the pupil should be allowed to remain physically present during the collective worship but not take part in it, nothing in the law prevents this.

Experience suggests that, to avoid misunderstanding, a Headteacher / Principal will find it helpful to establish with any parent wanting to exercise the right to withdrawal:

- the elements of worship in which the parent would object to the child taking part;
- the practical implications of withdrawal; and
- whether the parent will require any advanced notice of such worship, and, if so, how much.

Where parents have withdrawn their children from collective worship and request religious worship according to a particular faith or denomination, the governors and Headteacher / Principal will seek to respond positively to such requests providing:

- such arrangements can be made at no additional cost to the school; and
- that the alternative provision would be consistent with the overall purposes of the school curriculum as set out in Section 1 of the 1988 Education Act. (Circular 1/94)
